

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Monessen Communities That Care (CTC) is a community-based delinquency prevention initiative which began on July 01, 2001 and serves under the state administration of the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency and;

WHEREAS, Monessen CTC's prevention efforts have been guided by the Communities That Care model for reducing prevalent problem behaviors among our youth. Use of the CTC Social Development Strategy has also provided the necessary opportunities, skills and recognition for reinforcing positive youth development. This same strategy offers the framework for youth to bond with caring adults in the community who model healthy beliefs and clear standards with the end result of increasing healthy behaviors among our youth and;

WHEREAS, Monessen CTC and Teresa Seh have been helping Monessen's youth since 2001 and have touched the lives of children and families in meaningful and heartfelt ways and;

WHEREAS, CTC has worked with numerous government agencies, organizations, parents, school administrators and other leaders, in order to look for ways to improve the lives of Monessen's youth, because the responsibility of ensuring that our youth are healthy citizens, belongs to all of us.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mayor Matthew Shorraw, do hereby recognize and commend Monessen Communities That Care and Teresa Seh for their dedication to the youth and community of Monessen.

Matthew T. Shorraw, Mayor
City of Monessen
