

Proclamation

Whereas, Julia Svec was born on March 2, 1919 in Roscoe, Pennsylvania, and;

Whereas, Julia met and married Angelo (Orangie) Amendola of Monessen, and;

Whereas, Julia and Angelo had two children: A. Joseph and Carole Amendola, and;

Whereas, A. Joseph had two children: Michael and Julianne, Julia's grandchildren, and;

Whereas, Michael had two children: Michelangelo and Theo, Julia's great-grandchildren, who affectionately call her "Gubby", and;

Whereas, Julia, in her years in Monessen, was involved with St. Cajetan church, and Monessen's Girl Scouts, and;

Whereas, after her dear "Orangie" passed away, she got re-involved with the church, and;

Whereas, Julia volunteered with St. Vincent De Paul, and currently makes pierogies on Mondays at the Epiphany of Our Lord Church.

Now therefore, I, Matthew Shorraw, Mayor of the City of Monessen, recognize and congratulate Julia on the occasion of her 100th birthday, on March 2, 2019. On behalf of the City of Monessen, I commend her on her many years of service to the community, and I sincerely wish her the very best wishes for many more healthy, blessed, and prosperous years.

Matthew Shorraw
Mayor, City of Monessen
