

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Mon Valley Alliance has been a wonderful ally for the City of Monessen, and is hosting its first Halloweentown event in Monessen, on October 28, 2018, and;

WHEREAS, MVA's mission is to be the leading advocacy organization promoting and marketing economic, community and workforce development in the mid-Mon Valley communities, and;

WHEREAS, Mon Valley Alliance sees the potential in the City of Monessen and its residents, and is willing to collaborate and think outside the box in order to spark community and economic development, not only in Monessen, but in our Mid-Mon Valley region, and;

WHEREAS, the City of Monessen is committed to supporting the diversity of all peoples; including zombies, ghouls, and goblins, alike, and we appreciate the efforts of Mon Valley Alliance, and their production of this fun community event.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Matthew Shorraw, Mayor of the City of Monessen, do hereby recognize the efforts of Mon Valley Alliance, thus far, and do hereby declare that Monessen shall be named 'Halloweentown', for one day, October 28, 2018, in commemoration of the First Annual Halloweentown event.

Matthew T. Shorraw, Mayor
City of Monessen
